Buyer has been advised that:
- (1) In serving as a dual agent, Broker is representing two parties, Buyer and the seller, as clients whose interests are or at times could be different or even adverse;
 - (2) Broker will disclose all adverse, material facts relevant to the transaction and actually known to the dual agent to all parties in the transaction except for information made confidential by request or instructions from either party which is not otherwise required to be disclosed by law;

- a. Broker's Entitlement to Commission: If during the term of this Agreement (as the same may be extended by the written agreement of the parties or as provided for herein) Buyer enters a Contract to Purchase or a lease, Buyer agrees that Broker shall be entitled to the Commission set forth herein at the closing of the transaction (regardless of whether the closing is during or after the Ending Date) or to a Leasing Commission, if buyer leases, leases to purchase or a leases with an option to purchase real property (regardless of ether the commencement of the lease is before or after the expiration of this Agreement). There may be properties shown to Buyer by Broker where a bonus is being offered to Broker in addition to the Commission or by Broker to an affiliated licensee for finding a buyer to purchase the property listed by Broker. Buyer consents to Broker and Broker's affiliated licensees receiving such bonuses.
- b. Seller Normally Pays Commission: In the event Seller does not pay the Broker the full amount of the Commission, the difference in Commission will be paid by Buyer as agreed in Section A.4(a).

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained herein, the payment of a leasing commission (including in lease purchase and lease with an option to purchase transactions) shall not relieve either Buyer from paying the Commission at the closing of a Contract to Purchase, as provided elsewhere in this Agreement.

6. Protected Period. The Protected Period shall be the period of time set forth in this Agreement commencing upon the expiration of this Agreement or what would have the expiration of this Agreement had it not been unilaterally terminated by Buyer during which Broker shall be protected for its Commission and/or Leasing Commission, as applicable. There shall be no Protected Period if Buyer and Broker mutually terminate this Agreement. In the event Buyer enters into a Contract to Purchase or lease, lease to purchase or lease with an option to purchase of real property which, during the term of this Agreement or what would have been the term of this Agreement had it not been unilaterally terminated by Buyer, was shown to Buyer by Broker, either virtually or in person, or which Buyer otherwise visited ("Protected Properties"), then Buyer shall pay Broker at closing or prior to the commencement of the lease the Commission and/or Leasing Commission, as applicable, set forth above.

For the purposes of this section, the term "Buyer" shall include Buyer, all members of the Buyer's immediate family, any legal entity in which buyer or any member of Buyer's immediate family owns or controls, directly or indirectly, more than ten percent (10%) of the shares or interests therein, and any third party who is acting under the direction or control of any of the above parties.  - (1) Activities which are fraudulent or illegal may be undetected by Broker; and
 - (2) Activities which are lawful and/or routine may be reported by Broker as being suspicious, unusual or potentially illegal or fraudulent.

7. Miscellaneous.

- a. Arbitration. All claims arising out of or relating to this Agreement and the alleged acts or omissions of any or all the parties hereunder shall be resolved by arbitration in accordance with the Federal Arbitration Act 9 U.S.C. § 1 et. seq. and the rules and procedures of the arbitration company selected to administer the arbitration. Upon making or receiving a demand for arbitration, the parties shall work together in good faith to select a mutually acceptable arbitration company with offices in Georgia to administer and conduct the arbitration. If the parties cannot mutually agree on an arbitration company, the company shall be selected as follows. Each party shall simultaneously exchange with the other party a list of three arbitration companies with offices in Georgia acceptable to that party to administer and conduct the arbitration. If there is only one (1) arbitration company that is common to both lists, that company shall administer and conduct the arbitration. If there is more than one arbitration company that is common to both lists, the parties shall either mutually agree on which arbitration company shall be selected or flip a coin to select the arbitration company. If there is not initially a common arbitration company on the lists, the parties shall repeat the process by expanding their lists by two each time until there is a common name on the lists selected by the parties. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and the arbitrator shall have authority to award attorneys' fees and allocate the costs of arbitration as part of any final award. All claims shall be brought by a party in his or her individual capacity and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class or representative proceeding. The arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person's claims, and may not otherwise preside over any form of a representative or class proceeding. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, this agreement to arbitrate shall not apply to: (1) any claim regarding the handling and disbursement of earnest money; and (2) any claim of Broker regarding the entitlement to or the non-payment of a real estate commission hereunder.

- b. Assignability. As part of a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Broker to another firm, Buyer consents to this Agreement being assigned by Broker to the other brokerage firm. In such event, the assignee, upon consenting to the assignment, shall: 1) thereafter be responsible for performing all of the duties of the assignor under this Agreement; and 2) have all the rights of the assignor including the right to receive the commission under this Agreement. Assignment of Broker to another Broker

- c. Attorney's Fees: In the event this Agreement, or any provision therein, is enforced through or is the subject of a dispute resulting in litigation or arbitration, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its actual attorney's fees, reasonably incurred.

d. Broker: Where the context indicates the term “Broker” shall include Broker’s affiliated licensees.

e. Entire Agreement: This Agreement represents the entire agreement of the parties. No representation, promise, or inducement not included in this Agreement shall be binding upon any party hereto. This Agreement and the terms and conditions herein may not be amended or waived except by the written agreement of Buyer and Broker. The failure of the parties to adhere strictly to the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the parties later to insist on such strict adherence.

f. Fair Housing Disclosure: Buyer acknowledges that Broker is committed to providing equal housing opportunities to all persons. While Broker may show Buyer properties of a type or in any specific geographical area requested by Buyer, Broker may not steer buyers to or away from particular areas based upon race, color, religion, national origin, sex, familial status, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity and may not answer questions based upon the demographics of different neighborhoods.

g. GAR Forms: The Georgia Association of REALTORS®, Inc. (“GAR”) issues certain standard real estate forms. These GAR forms are frequently provided to the parties in real estate transactions. No party is required to use any GAR form. Since these forms are generic and written with the interests of multiple parties in mind, they may need to be modified to meet the specific needs of the parties using them. If any party has any questions about his or her rights and obligations under any GAR form, he or she should consult an attorney. Provisions in the GAR Forms are subject to differing interpretations by our courts other than what the parties may have intended. At times, our courts may strike down or not enforce provisions in our GAR Forms, as written. No representation is made that the GAR Forms will protect the interests of any particular party or will be fit for any specific purpose. The parties hereto agree that the GAR forms may only be used in accordance with the licensing agreement of GAR. While GAR forms may be modified by the parties, no GAR form may be reproduced with sections removed, altered or modified unless the changes are visible on the form itself or in a stipulation, addendum, exhibit or amendment thereto.

h. Governing Law and Interpretation: This Agreement may be signed in multiple counterparts each of which shall be deemed to be an original and shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of Georgia. No provision herein, by virtue of the party who drafted it, shall be interpreted less favorably against one party than another. All references to time shall mean the time in Georgia. If any provision herein is to be unenforceable, it shall be severed from this Agreement while the remainder of the Agreement shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, continue to have full force and effect as a binding contract.

i. Independent Contractor Relationship: This Agreement shall create an independent contractor relationship between Broker and Buyer. Broker shall at no time be considered an employee of Buyer. Unless otherwise stipulated, all affiliated licensees of Broker are independent contractors of Broker.

j. No Imputed Knowledge: Buyer acknowledges and agrees that with regard to any property in which Buyer develops an interest, there shall be no knowledge imputed between Broker and Broker’s licensees or between the different licensees of Broker. Broker and each of Broker’s licensees shall be deemed to have only actual knowledge of such properties.

k. Notices between Buyer and Broker:

(1) Communications Regarding Real Estate Transactions: Buyer acknowledges that many communications and notices in real estate transactions are of a time sensitive nature and that the failure to be available to receive such notices and communications can have adverse legal, business and financial consequences. During the term of this Agreement, Buyer agrees to remain reasonably available to receive communications from Broker.

(2) Notices between Broker and Buyer Regarding this Agreement: Buyer and Broker agree that communications and notices between them regarding the terms of this Agreement shall be in writing, signed by the party giving the notice, and may be delivered in person or to any address, e-mail address and/or facsimile number to the person to whom the communication or notice is being given specifically set forth in this Agreement. It is the intent of the parties that those means of transmitting notices for which a party has not provided an address or number shall not be used for receiving notices and communications. For example, if a party has not provided an e-mail address in this Agreement, it shall mean that the party is not accepting notices or communications sent by this means.

l. Referrals: Should Buyer seek to purchase real property in an area with which Broker is unfamiliar or for the sale of Buyer’s property, Buyer hereby authorizes Broker to refer Buyer to another broker or licensee for brokerage or relocation services. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that Broker may receive a valuable consideration for the referral.

m. Statute of Limitations: All claims of any nature whatsoever against Broker and/or their affiliated licensees, whether asserted in litigation or arbitration and sounding in breach of contract and/or tort, must be brought within two (2) years from the date any claim or cause of action arises. Such actions shall thereafter be time-barred.

n. Survival: The rights and obligations of Broker to a commission subsequent to the termination or expiration of this Agreement as set forth herein, the limitation of liability, the obligation to arbitrate and indemnify Broker and other similar provisions that by their terms are meant to protect Broker shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

o. Third Party Vendors: Broker may provide Buyer with the names of vendors to perform services on behalf of Buyer relative to real estate transactions involving Buyer. Broker does not warrant or endorse the performance of any such vendor and the names of vendors are provided solely as a courtesy and starting point for Buyer to identify possible vendors to perform services on behalf of Buyer. Buyer agrees to do his or her own due diligence regarding the skills, expertise and reputation of all such vendors performing services for Buyer and the terms of all contracts with vendors (including whether there is a limitation of liability in such contracts). All decisions regarding which vendor to hire shall be solely that of Buyer.

p. Time of Essence: Time is of the essence of this Agreement.

8. Buyer Default. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary herein, Buyer agrees to immediately pay Broker its Commission in the event any of the following occur:

a. Buyer defaults under a Contract to Purchase real estate under which Broker would have been paid a commission had the transaction closed;

b. Buyer agrees with a seller to mutually terminate a Contract to Purchase under which Broker would have been paid a commission had the transaction closed without the prior consent of Broker; or

c. Buyer unilaterally terminates this Agreement and then enters into a Contract to Purchase property, lease, lease to purchase, or lease with an option to purchase of property, as applicable, either during what would have been the remaining term of this Agreement had the Agreement not been unilaterally terminated, or during the Protected Period, as provided for in the Protected Period section of this Agreement.

9. WARNING TO BUYERS AND SELLERS: BEWARE OF CYBER-FRAUD. Fraudulent e-mails attempting to get the buyer and/or seller to wire money to criminal computer hackers are increasingly common in real estate transactions. Specifically, criminals are impersonating the online identity of the actual mortgage lender, closing attorney, real estate broker or other person or companies involved in the real estate transaction. In that role, the criminals send fake wiring instructions attempting to trick buyers and/or sellers into wiring them money related to the real estate transaction, including, for example, the buyer's earnest money, the cash needed for the buyer to close, and/or the seller's proceeds from the closing. These instructions, if followed, will result in the money being wired to the criminals. In many cases, the fraudulent email is believable because it is sent from what appears to be the email address/domain of the legitimate company or person responsible for sending the buyer or seller wiring instructions. The buyer and/or seller should verify wiring instructions sent by email by independently looking up and calling the telephone number of the company or person purporting to have sent them. Buyers and sellers should never call the telephone number provided with wiring instructions sent by email since they may end up receiving a fake verification from the criminals. Buyer and sellers should be on special alert for: 1) emails directing the buyer and/or seller to wire money to a bank or bank account in a state other than Georgia; and 2) emails from a person or company involved in the real estate transaction that are slightly different (often by one letter, number, or character) from the actual email address of the person or company.

10. Brochures. Brochures referenced herein are prepared courtesy of GAR. The recommendations are general in nature and may not be applicable to the transaction reflected in this Agreement, and are not intended to either be exhaustive or specific advice that Buyer should rely on without Buyer first consulting with independent experts and professionals of Buyer's own choosing to ensure that Buyer is protected.
